DEVELOPMENT

LS Central 20.4 released - no DLLs

LS Central 20.4 was released on September 28, 2022. It is the first version without DLLs. This is a big step for LS Central for Universal Code Compliancy, registration to AppSource, and for moving our customers to Microsoft's BC SaaS shared clusters (scheduled for 1H 2023). See release announcement.

For more details please refer to the Release Notes.

LS Insight 2022.2 released

Recently, we released a new version of LS Insight, the free BI solution with over 100 retail report pages that LS Retail offers all partners and customers. It includes updates and fixes to the Supply chain report, which is the latest addition to the LS Insight report suite, and support for our latest reports for LS Insight with LS Central SaaS. See release announcement.

PARTNER OPERATIONS

Universal Code Requirements

Following the announcement from Microsoft regarding Universal Code requirements, we would like to inform our Partners/Customers that, LS Central Customers, either new or transitioning to LS Central on BC onPrem Perpetual, do not need to pay the recurring customer license fee starting January 1, 2023 for licenses with LS Central modules.

Existing customers prior to October 3, 2022 are exempt from the Universal Code licensing requirement.

Please contact Licenses if you have any questions.

LS Retail Partner Survey 2022 - final reminder

You have until Friday 14, 2022 to answer the annual Partner Survey. It only takes 10 minutes. Please help us identify where we can improve and tell us what we should focus on going forward.

NEWS

Nominate colleagues for WID awards

LS Retail is a proud sponsor of Women in Dynamics, an initiative that aims to promote diversity and inclusion in the Dynamics Community. Is there someone in your company who's been showing exceptional talent, or who is a leader in the community?
